MR. HARTLEY AND MISS
WEBB MARRY LAST NIGHT

A very pretty home wedding was that of Mr. Andrew Hartley and Miss Myrtle Webb, which occurred last night at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Webb, of North Hill. The ceremony was attended by a small party of relatives and friends, but was nicely carried out in every particular. With four little flower girls, the bridal party advanced to the music of a wedding march and when all had taken their places, Elder George Fowler, pastor of the Christian church, performed the ceremony which united them for life. The groom is an employee of the Roswell Wool & Hide Company and a splendid young man.
His bride is a pretty and popular young lady and both have many friends who extend best wishes. They will live in Roswell.

Flay Linley came in last night from Elida, where he has been in charge of the Kemp Lumber Company's yard at that place.
